EuroScience Open Forum - a must-join-event

The programme at a glance provides you with a clear overview what to expect when you register for the 10th edition of ESOF2022, Europe's largest multidisciplinary scientific conference.

Hybrid Programme

Entitled Crossing Borders, Engaged Science, Resilient Societies, ESOF2022 is designed to help delegates build academic bridges between the humanities, natural sciences, medicine, and social sciences. ESOF2022 will leverage all the benefits of a hybrid format. It offers the opportunity to collaborate – online and in-person – to tackle society's greatest challenges and create new insights, approaches, and alliances. It enables all delegates to expand their know-how, build their networks and discuss and discover a huge range of topics, while making new connections that yield new insights. So, what are you waiting for? Let's connect curious minds.

Hybrid: Onsite & Online (virtual platform)

Approx 120 scientific sessions including the sessions of the regional site Katowice, the World programme (3 timezones), approx. 80 (e-)poster sessions, 7 keynote presentations, 2 plenary panel discussions, 4 sponsored sessions, several satellite and events award ceremonies, special workshops, virtual booth exhibition, Studio ESOF2022 and access to an open Networking area.

Onsite only (Leiden, the Netherlands incl free access to the virtual platform)

Approx. 50 scientific sessions, 75 live poster presentations, exhibition (in the renowned Pieterskerk/church), 2 award ceremonies, business to science fieldtrips, (pre-conference) workshops, all kinds of social events, opening ceremony, welcome reception, delegate party and other networking sessions. And you can visit the European City of Science festival.

All session recordings and on-demand content is accessible up to two months after the conference.

- Programme subject to change
- Programme updates are shared at esof.eu
- Scheduling a personal programme will be two weeks in advance in the virtual conference platform and mobile app.
- Subscribe to the ESOF2022 newsletter to get regular updates on the programme and the speakers.
- The ESOF2022 conference follows Central European Summer Time (CEST)
- As for the World programme sessions, the topics/sessions are accommodating other world time zones.

LEGEND

Sessions have been allocated to one of these 7 scientific topics, called tracks:

Sustainable Environment

(e.g. climate change, human rights, a sustainable way of living, green energy, citizen science, future mobility, future cities, economy)

Cultural Identities and Societal Transformations

(e.g. migration, fortress Europe, missions of museums and collections, contested heritage, art, protest movements)

Space for Science

(e.g. search for earth, construction in space and on the moon, finding extra-terrestrial life, dark matter research, quantum computing)

Healthy Societies

(e.g. chronic diseases, digital tools, increasing costs, interplay between industrial research and academic research, global inequalities, data protection, artificial intelligence)

Freedom and Responsibility of Science

(e.g. integrity in science advice, dialogue between science and policy, funding in freedom of science, responsible research and innovation, science diplomacy, conflicts of interests)

Science and Business

(e.g. new career paths, research quality vs. quantity, the role of team science cid:43f9ae83-e108-4072-b491-e74762d51f47)

Sustainable Academic Careers

(e.g. entrepreneurial education, research performed in academia and industry, value-driven innovation, innovation out of the humanities)

Keynotes and plenary panels

Thursday 14 July	14:00 – 18:00
Friday 15 July	14:00 – 18:00
Saturday 16 July	09:00 – 16:00

Meet the Expert

EuroScience Booth, Exhibition Hall at Pieterskerk

Thursday 14 July	12:45 – 13:45
Friday 15 July	12:45 – 13:45
Saturday 16 July	13:00 – 14:00

EC booth - pavilion will include a wide range of activities, like:

- TED-style talks,
- virtual reality experiences,
- live sketching with young artists,

- virtual escape games on sustainability and space,
- European Talent Fair with 4 training sessions (16 July)

Poster live presentations and Q&A

Come and meet presenters in person and listen to their poster presentations. They will be there to share their research and answer your questions. Check out the schedule of sessions and the location of posters at Pieterskerk.

All posters are centred around one of the 7 tracks:

- Thursday 14 July - from 12:45 to 13:45
 - Freedom and Responsibility of Science P31-P59
 - Space for Science P78-P81
- Friday 15 July – from 12:45 to 13:45
 - Sustainable Environment P01-P20; P82-P85
 - Cultural Identities and Societal Transformations: P27-P30
 - Sustainable Academic Careers P70-P77
- Saturday 16 July – from 13:00 – 14:00
 - Healthy Societies P61-P69
 - Science and Business P21-P26

E-posters

All posters will be - 24/7 hrs- accessible in the online virtual conference platform as e-posters.

European City of Science activities

Leiden2022 presentation

- European City of Science presents 365 year-round Public Engagement programme

Open Podium

- Open scientific sessions
- Scientific movies

Open social network Cafe-area

Studio ESO2022

- A live (and online) talkshow studio from which different parts of the conference will be covered.
- Interviews, discussions with speakers, short panel discussions, delegate interviews, exhibition tours, art & music.

European Science in the City festival (in front of the Pieterskerk)

- During ESO2022 the city of Leiden hosts a festive programme for all curious minds. It offers mobile expositions, art, pop up musea, music, conventions, city tours and more.

Model James Webb Telescope Satellite (JWTS)

- Model available for viewing throughout the conference at Pieterskerk Exhibition Hall

13 July

EuroScience

- General Assembly, LIVE only, 10:30-12:30, Stadsgehoorzaal: Breezaal – EuroScience members only

Science and Business

- Fieldtrip/company tour. Company visit tour Leiden Bio Science Park. The tour leaves from the Stadsgehoorzaal at 14:00, return at 17:00.

14 July

NWO

- Meet-up: journalists & researchers from 08:00 - 09:15, Stadsgehoorzaal, Aalmarktfoyer

Elsevier

- Session on: The Braided River: Women in Science, Careers and Recognition from 11:15 - 12:30 at the Stadsgehoorzaal, Aalmarktzaal.
